2. As a professional geographer, I disagree rather vigorously with some of the content of that article and the impressions which I believe it will leave with the reading public. I have prepared a letter to the Editor of [REDACTED], setting forth some of my reactions to the article. A copy of my draft letter and of the article are attached hereto, and I request approval to transmit my letter to the Editor of the [REDACTED]

Remarks: 4 to 5: I have approved this but told [Redacted] that I wanted him to append a note advising [Redacted] that [Redacted] has been a geographer with the CIA for "x" number of years, but that the views expressed in this letter are strictly his and because they are personal, he does not want his Agency affiliation to be printed, but did think the editor of the [Redacted] should be aware of it.
